INVITATION FOR BID OF CIVIL WORKS

Cambodian Children's Fund (CCF) is a 501(c)(3) U.S. registered charity with a mission to "transforming the most impoverished children into tomorrow's leaders". Our approach is based on a fundamental belief that education will provide children with pathways out of poverty.

The Child Protection Unit (CPU) is a program of the CCF, and in the almost 10 years since its inception, the CPU has made great strides in improving the quality of response to serious crimes against children in Cambodia, but there is still much to do.

The CCF's Romdoul Centre, located in PrekKampeus village, Khan Dangkor, Kandal Province, along the national road #2, it is about 5 kilometres from Takhmao town, is planned to support all victims of sexual assault and will set the standard in care for victims of rape and abuse in Cambodia and as such the facility will also be a hub for training, utilizing the CPU's global network of child crime specialists mainly from Australia and the UK.

CCF is currently looking for potential companies to provide building construction for ROMDOUL CENTER. The Invitation for Bid (IFB) consists of this cover page, step and the following Annexes below;

Step 1 - Pre-qualified bidder
